Important Points-Phase-2 ITI Grading

Phase-2 Grading of ITIs was launched in February 2019 for all the NCVT affiliated ITIs in the country. It is mandatory for all the NCVT ITIs in the country to get graded.

Under Phase-2 Grading, there are 27 outcome based grading parameters categorized into 5 categories. Phase-2 Self-grading of the ITIs has already been completed on 31st July 2019 and third-party grading agency is being engaged for the grading of ITIs.

The following table is the summary of queries for the benefit of States and ITIs:

#	Query	Answer
1.	Is Grading mandatory for all ITIs?	It is mandatory for all the NCVT affiliated ITIs(both Govt. and Private) in the country to get graded
2.	Is Phase-2 grading mandatory even for ITIs who participated in Phase-1 grading?	ITIs graded in Phase-1 of grading can also participate in Phase-2 grading. However, it is not mandatory for such ITIs to get graded under Phase-2.
3.	What is the validity of Phase-2 grading result?	The grading result will be valid for next 5 years from date of award of grade to the ITI.
4.	What if an ITI graded under Phase-1 goes for re-grading under Phase-2?	If an already graded ITI (graded under Phase-1 of grading) goes for re-grading (under Phase-2 of grading), then the latest grading score will be considered as final and this final grade score will be used while deciding on any future course of action (including but not limited to incentives, benefits) corresponding
